

The Science of Bicycles-Glossary kinetic energy (noun): energy an object or particle has because it is moving Synonym: energy in motion magnify (verb): to enlarge in fact or appearance

Synonym: multiply, amplify, enhance air resistance (noun): a force that opposes the motion of an object as it goes through the air absorb (verb): to receive without giving back Synonym: consume, take in diameter (noun): a line segment through the center of a circle ending on the circumference

Synonym: distance across a circle spokes (noun): small bars extending from the hub of a wheel to support the rim gear (noun): a toothed wheel overcome (verb): to gain an advantage or victory over

Synonym: take over, defeat, conquer lever (noun): a stiff bar for applying force at one point by effort at a second point and turning on the fulcrum

Synonym: shovel, paddle, broom; tools with handles ratio (noun): the comparison in quantity, amount or size between two or more things

Synonym: proportion, rate, scale activated (verb): to make active Synonym: turn on, set in motion, start treads (noun): the ridges or grooves on a tire that make contact with the road

